

Making Sinners into Saints - January/February 2023

1. It's only by grace that any of us can be used by God for none of us is worthy.
  - a. Has there been a season in your life when you thought yourself to be almost perfect? Are you still in it? If not, how did God humble you?
  - b. God is always working with imperfect people; recall an instance when you witnessed this in the life of someone else.
  - c. Have others seen God use your imperfections for His glory?

2. Those who serve God must be persistent and focused in their efforts to serve others in His name.
  - a. Are you a procrastinator? Are you patient with those who are?
  - b. Do you hesitate to make commitments because you want to keep all of your options open? How do you respond to those who are ambivalent?

3. God is forgiving of us and He expects us to be forgiving of others.
  - a. Describe a relationship that is in tatters because of your unwillingness to forgive.
  - b. Describe a relationship that is in tatters because someone is unwilling to forgive you.
  - c. As a Christian, what actions might Jesus be expecting you to take to bridge these troubled waters?

4. Everyone needs affirmation.
  - a. Describe how this truth was revealed to you in a moment when obstacles caused your confidence to falter.
  - b. What words of affirmation might you speak into the life of a friend who is feeling small and weary today?

