FOLLOWING JESUS THROUGH THE UNKNOWN

Read Matthew 12:14-21, Romans 15:4-6, 13, Psalm 23:4, Jeremiah 6:16

Uncertainty is painful and frightening. It's vast and unknown. Yet, it's also the soil in which prayers are rooted, the foundation upon which trust is built, and, if we're willing to wait on the Lord, the place where peace can grow.

1. Right now, what is the biggest "unknown" you are up against?
2. Why do we feel so much anxiety about the unknown?
3. What unknowns were people asking between Good Friday and Easter morning?
Do you find you are asking the same questions about your unknowns?

4. When we are following Jesus through the unknown, what does Psalm 23:4 promise us?

5. What praises can you give about an unknown that Jesus saw you through?
