Thoughts to Ponder

1. All of Christianity is based on God's irrational love, a love so passionate that He doesn't hesitate to show it in physical ways.
 - a. Describe a time when you didn't really love yourself.
 - b. Did you doubt God's love for you during that time?
2. Have you ever considered doing something as irrational as giving up your comfortable existence for someone else?
 - a. Jesus humbled Himself for you; describe a time when you humbled yourself for the sake of another.
 - b. Did others think your actions were foolish?
3. Have you ever considered doing something as irrational as openly opposing something that others thought was right but you knew was against the truth of Scripture?
 - a. Jesus confronted the established religious and governmental authorities for you; describe a time when you went against prevailing social customs for the sake of the Gospel.
 - b. Did others think your actions were foolish?
4. Have you ever considered doing something as irrational as allowing yourself to be punished for someone else's wrongdoing?
 - a. On the Cross, Jesus took upon Himself the punishment for your sins; describe a time when you suffered in the place of another.
 - b. Did others think your actions were foolish?

5. "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life."
- a. Do you believe this quote from John 3:16 ESV?
 - b. Do others think you are foolish? If so, do you care?
